Port Descriptions:

Alaska Inside Passage – A narrow waterway surrounded by 1,000-foot icy cliffs, you'll find water and wildlife mix quite nicely in this haven for kayakers, anglers and glacier-gazers.

Juneau, Alaska – Alaska's capital sits at the base of Mt. Juneau and is surrounded by salt water – an ideal jumping point for tons of outdoor action.

Skagway, Alaska – With over 20 shore excursions, including dog-sledding and a wilderness safari, it's no wonder Skagway is Alaska's "fun city".

Tracy Arm Fjord/Sawyer Glacier – Home of the twin Sawyer Glaciers, here you'll witness some of the world's most awe-inspiring tidewater glaciers, cascading waterfalls and icebergs.

Victoria, British Columbia – The capital of British Columbia, Victoria is a cosmopolitan metropolis in picturesque harbor setting that is home to charming colonial architecture and historic buildings.

Seattle, Washington – The enchanting "Emerald City" offers oodles of outdoor activities, a dynamic cultural scene and, of course, a coffee shop on every corner.

Rates include, cruise, port charges and taxes and are based on two people sharing one stateroom. Round-trip airfare and transfers are available for an additional cost
